Learn "Rhythmic Tension"

Watch this video without playing anything. Watch it for the next five days until you complete and understand it.

The first part of the video is the tutorial portion (0:00-7:18 mark)

Notes

Download the PDF visual for this 4/4 time signature here. Use the visual to guide you.

10 Minutes

Practice "Rhythmic Tension"

Choose 1 of 7 songs to work on from the same video linked to the left. I would suggest working on just a snippet of the song.

Song time stamps:

Hotel California: 7:20
Give Thanks: 9:34
Feel My Love (Adele): 13:57

Notes

Song time stamps (part 2 video here)
Here I Am To Worship: 0:00
Jireh: 3:30
Let it Be: 9:30
Country Roads Take Me Home: 13:07

5 Minutes

Apply "Rhythmic Tension"

Practice your chosen song. Jot down the chords if needed for the section. Decide where to add rhythmic tension - but don't use it on every chord. Place it intentionally.

Notes

Don't forget to learn the basic form of the song with just your left hand pumping on quarter notes.

Learn Nik's Chord Voicing

Watch this video without playing anything. Watch it everyday for the next six days until you complete and understand it.

I would not recommend mastering all key signatures. Choose 3 key signatures you like and start there :)

Notes

Download the PDF visual here for the chord voicings and 1-6-4-2-5-1 progressions.

Connecting To The Rhythm

Watch this video and understand everything I'm doing.

Practice Clapping The Rhythm

Watch this video and clap along with me

Notes

Remember, the 1st part of the rhythm is variable! It changes. The 2nd part stays the same (RLLR)!

“

While most players returning to the piano after a long break fall back into rigid, predictable patterns, you'll unlock rhythms that bring real flow, movement, and life to your playing.

Make Playing Easy Sound like a piano PRO

So you're hyped up and ready to finally learn this stuff but have no idea what to do next?

I'll help you!

In the suggested courses from the quiz, I've included my updated edition of "RhythmTechniques4U" HERE... you'll learn how to pack your songs with fresh rhythms, fills, and tricks that make your playing actually flow. By the end, you'll have the chops to play any style - fast or slow- and sound great in church (or anywhere).
